Important Hotel Information for Attendees and Exhibitors of 2023 Commodity Classic:
Maritz Global Events is the Only Official Housing Partner

We have been made aware that several exhibitors, attendees and members have been contacted by vendors offering to provide room rates and hotel services for Commodity Classic. While it is possible that other companies may have secured blocks of rooms at various hotels, they are not the official housing provider.

Please be aware that Maritz Global Events is the ONLY official housing provider for Commodity Classic. Your room rates and availability for reservations are only guaranteed when you book your room through Maritz Global Events. Reservations can only be made online beginning in mid-November.

Hotel reservations made outside of the official hotel block may put you at risk. Other vendors cannot provide the same benefits and protection offered by booking through Maritz Global Events.

In the past we have received reports of individuals who encountered challenges upon checking into the hotel with reservations made through unofficial vendors. Do not risk arriving at your hotel only to discover your reservation did not exist or your deposit has been lost!

You can help to identify someone misrepresenting themselves by asking the caller these three simple questions:

1. What company are you with?
2. Can they send you information before you book?
3. Who may I ask for when calling the official housing provider number?

If you are contacted by a travel company other than Maritz Global Events, please immediately notify Show Management at feck@commodityclassic.com.
