

Attention Commodity Classic Exhibitors

If you are an exhibitor at the National Farm Machinery Show, you may ship your freight to our Advance Warehouse directly from the National Farm Machinery Show and you will NOT incur the 25% Late Warehouse Penalty normally applied to shipments arriving after Friday, February 24, 2023.

This is only for those exhibitors shipping directly from the National Farm Machinery Show at the Kentucky Exposition Center to the Paramount Advance Warehouse at 3732 Bryn Mawr St. Orlando, FL 32808.

Your carrier must provide a bill of lading listing the Kentucky Exposition Center as the “Ship From” address to the Advance Warehouse upon delivery in order for your shipment to qualify.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact your show coordinator Leigh Everett at 314-621-6677.

Thank You
